2. ROLL CALL

All members were in attendance except Mr. John and Mr. Amador. Others present were Peter Snaddon and Erich Strey.

3. CITIZENS' COMMENTS – None.

4. DISCUSSION: PROPOSED 2023 GUADALUPE APPRAISAL DISTRICT BUDGET –

Snaddon said there had been no response from the entities. Posting was done according to the Tax Code. Snaddon reported a slight change in cost of the storage units of $10 a month extra as well as possible slight reduction in TCDRS with the 40% CPI-Based Cola as we discussed. Mr. Snaddon said it is roughly a difference $13,759.00 and rather than change the number he had just transferred from the legislative contingency to make up the difference of the change so that the final number of the budget is as it was sent out $4,341,460.56.

Mr. Lievens questioned if health insurance being provided to employee at 100% and TCDRS 15% basically from district being typical among counties. Snaddon said we were comparative with other counties. Mr. Lievens stated he just wanted to verify the information. No other questions were asked.

5. Adjournment – Darren Dunn adjourned the meeting at 5:37 p.m.
